 MY ROTARY

12/05/2017

This Week at Rotary #14: December 5

Tomorrow at Rotary, we will be joined by Nick Cusick, CEO of IMSCORP and a member of the Lincoln Airport Authority Board of Directors. His presentation will focus on "The Impact of the LPS/SCC Career Academy and Lincoln Air Service on Lincoln's Economic Vitality and Growth."

Cusick is an active member in our community's civic life who has served in important leadership roles on numerous non-profit boards, business organizations, local foundations and as a champion for important community development projects. Cusick's presentation is sure to be intriguing and insightful. Bring a guest to learn more on Tuesday!

Hoffman named New Club Administrator for Club #14

Yolanda Hoffman was introduced as our new Club Administrator at last week's meeting. She has officially started her work for Rotary #14 and will be on hand at all our Tuesday meetings going forward.Â

More information about Yolanda:

She was born, raised, and educated in the Philippines. She is now a proud and grateful American. Yolanda has a degree in Secondary Education and finished the academic requirements for a Masters in Public Administration. Prior to moving to the United States, Yolanda traveled the world under the auspices of the International Red Cross. She was the youngest nationally-elected Governor of Philippine Red Cross. Yolanda and her husband owned an internet service provider company in the Philippines which they sold in 2003 as part of their move to Chicago. In 2004, they moved to Omaha to be near her husband's family.

Yolanda has many years of Rotary experience having organized and served as Rotaract President in District 3860 in the Philippines. She is currently a member of Omaha Suburban Rotary where she has served on the Board of Directors and chairs the Public Relations Committee. She is actively involved in District 5650 as District Chair of Rotaract/Interact and has served as Health and Hunger Chair. She has also served on the District Governor Selection Committee and is a graduate of the Rotary Leadership Institute. Yolanda is married to Phil Hoffman and they have three children.

Introduce yourself to Yolanda the next time you are at a Tuesday meeting!

We Want Your Votes for our Holiday Meeting Meal!

The Rotary #14 Holiday meal bracket continues this week with Round Two. 8 choices, 4 winners... who will win? Tomato Bisque edged out Creamy Potato and Chestnut Soup by ONE vote last week. So come to Rotary and vote for your lunch. The winners will be unveiled next week, and we will enjoy the meal YOU chose on December 19th at our Holiday Party, with eggnog, cookies, and special music performances too!

Welcome New Members to Rotary #14

November saw the addition of two new members to our club ranks. Welcome these returning Rotarians to the Club #14 fold when you see them at a future meeting.
