

Birthdays

Everyone has them – admit it or not,
And some, you know, have had a lot,
Little ones, though, as we know, have not.

Birthdays are bright, merry and gay,
This year pretend that yours is today,
And buy some treasures for others' pleasures.

A birthday gift to me from me,
I ask you now, how can that be?
It sounds sort of funny and will it cost money?

What you do for that gift is as easy as pie,
Just think what it takes to make ideas fly.
A book, you say, oh my, oh my!

Books are amazing,
They're simply trailblazing,
They can put you in space or a deep inside place.

Just do as I do, now don't be a schmoo,
And do it right now, so you're not overdue.
Please fill in the blanks – we'd love to say thanks!

Each book is just $20,
So be sure to give plenty,
And your name will appear in a book in a school nook – now isn't that dear!

Birthday Books upon the shelf mean putting "Service above Self"!
