

This Week at Rotary #14: Poetry from the Plains

Join us on Tuesday to hear from Twyla Hansen, Nebraska State Poet. Hansen, winner of the Nebraska Book Award for Poetry in 2004 and 2012, and author of Potato Soup, a Nebraska 150 Notable Book, will talk about her work as the State Poet and include readings from her books of poetry. In addition, she will also briefly discuss creative writing in our state, and why poetry is relevant to everyday life.

You can read more about our Nebraska State Poets here.

This is a unique program and a great opportunity to invite a guest to Rotary this week!

Recent Personal Concerns

◆ Chris Foged had open heart surgery on August 1st. He is home and doing well, but recovery will take another two to three months. A Meal Train to assist the family during this time has been created for those that would like to deliver meals. Click here if you can help.

◆ Lynne Rustad, former member, mother of Club member Zac Rustad and mother-in-law of Club member Jess Rustad, succumbed to cancer on August 4th. Lynne was Club #14 Rotarian of the Year in 2004-05 and a tireless worker on the Community Service Auction for 11 years. Lynne was a Rotarian from 1997 to 2008. Our deepest sympathy to Lynne's family and friends, many of whom are members of Club #14.

◆ Our condolences to Greg Newport, whose brother passed away last month.
